Philadelphia Mint.

Will you please be kind enough to state if there is such a coin as the Brasher doubloon, worth $16.00. I have hear there was such a coin at one time, but at this date that there was only one or two in existence. One of these said to be in the Philadelphia Mint. This said to be over one hundred years old. By answering these questions you will greatly oblige a descendant of Ephram Brasher the man who was said to have made the coin.

Very Respt.
